Superhero Ultraferno

The class of 2021 is very talented. The McCluer North Thespian Troop presents their first show of the school year: Superhero Ultraferno. Mark your calendars to see sophomores on stage November 8th - 10th at 7pm in the Little Theatre of the Stars.

Kennedy Mitchell, Brooke Strautmann, Elly Boyle, Selena Thompson, Alayna Abel, Kayla Davis, Dominique Spann, Sophia Koch Holdsworth, Grace Unger, Alex McInnis, Lucas Tatar, Jeremiah Gooden, and Ryan Weaver-Palmer will all be on stage. Other Stars will be working behind the scenes. The sophomore crew members for this show will be Camille McDonald—sound, Allen Graham—lights, Grace Barren & Jason—set, and Lauryn B—makeup.

we:STAND “Start with Hello” 9/24- 9/28

we:STAND is a student group that has been meeting on Wednesdays to organize a week of positive messages. Next week, Sept. 24-28, is Start with Hello Week. The idea came from the Sandy Hook Promise Organization, a non profit started by the parents of the victims of the Sandy Hook Elementary School shooting. Start with Hello Week is meant to encourage positive interactions amongst students and staff, and really just encouraging kindness. The main point is that students “say hello” to someone new each day and maybe make a new friend. we:STAND is sponsored by the wonderful Ms. Jones Larsen (stjones@fergflor.org). Class of 2021’s Austin Nelson Evans is a good resource if you want more information.

Motivational Message Monday we:STAND students are partnering with Art Club students to decorate MN sidewalks with positive messages to welcome students to school.

Tear Off Tuesday Flyers will be posted around the school with tear off positive messages of encouragement that the students could tear off for themselves or share with others.

Wear Green Wednesday Green is the color that the Sandy Hook Promise Organization has chosen to represent their cause. Students and staff are encouraged to wear green.

Pass On Post Its Thursday we:STAND members will greet students and staff entering the building with handwritten messages of encouragement on post it notes, encouraging them to pass it on throughout the day to someone who looks like they need a pick me up!
