Equitable Services:

Districts that receive Title funds are required to offer services to:

- Eligible nonpublic school students
- Teachers of eligible nonpublic school students
- Families of eligible nonpublic school students

Title I:

---

- Title I is a program that provides supplemental funds from the federal government to improve student learning.

Funds may be used to provide:

- Tutoring services
- Parent involvement/engagement activities
- Professional development of classroom teachers that directly serve students and parental involvement

Title I Bypass Services

---

- Bypass is a means by which the USDE directly provides equitable services to nonpublic students and teachers through a third party.
- 54 public school districts in Missouri who are on Bypass utilize the services of Catapult Learning
- The USDE contracts with Catapult Learning directly therefore the district has no connection to the services or funding.
  - Examples of student services:
    - Direct instruction during or outside the regular classroom
    - After school supplemental support
    - Extended school day/extended school year academic programs
